N.D. Editor Skeptical on JFK Probe

The publisher of a North Dakota newspaper says his editorial staff is skeptical about DA Jim Garrison's assassination probe.

"We hesitate to pass prejudgment on the case, but we've been scratching our heads over it," said Raymond C. Dobson, editor and publisher of the Minot, N.D., Daily News.

He went on to say that his paper had carried the story on its front page, and that the News had tried to present both sides of the story.

"We wasted a lot of ink on it," he commented.

Dobson, national president of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, is here visiting Elk lodges before attending the state convention in Shreveport Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Commenting on Louisiana's progress, he said, "What's happening in industrial growth in this area is fantastic."
